A Generous God

In our daily lives, and in prayer and worship, we encounter a God whom we don't fully understand. We sometimes meet a mysterious and surprising God, whose actions and designs are beyond us, "as high as the heavens are above the earth." Our readings this week describe the confusion, the joy, and the challenge of this encounter. The readings invite us to "let go." Isaiah invites us to let go of trying to fit God into our own comfortable ways of thinking. Paul, knowing that he might face death at any time, describes his joy over having let go of trying to control his future. Jesus' parable in the Gospel of Matthew challenges us to let go of limiting God's generosity to others. May our encounters with our mysterious but trustworthy God transform our hearts and minds, and deepen our trust in God.

The parable in today's Gospel identifies a very strong human tendency to believe that everyone should get what they deserve. If we achieve more than others, we deserve to receive more: more money, more privilege, more honor. And so we anticipate that God will reward more liberally those who have done more for God.

Jesus says that God does things differently. The full day's wage in the story is like the gift of forgiveness and salvation, shared equally and abundantly with all. The full-day laborers complained that "you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden." They resented not being placed higher than the others, refusing to accept them as equals. Jesus is saying that, among God's people, there is no such pecking order. Regardless of background or achievements, we can accept everyone as brothers and sisters, and rejoice in God's generosity to everyone.

RCIA/Adult Confirmation Classes

Beginning Monday, September 25 - every two weeks at 7:30 p.m.

The Catholic Church designed the RCIA process for everyone; adult or child over seven years of age, who is: yearning for something more in their lives; interested in learning more about the Catholic Church; unbaptized and recognizing the need for spirituality in their lives; or baptized in the Catholic Church or another Christian faith tradition but never received any formal religious training. This includes any Catholic adults who were never confirmed and would like to receive that sacrament. How long does it take?

The Rite of Christian Initiation process ministers individually to those seeking membership. Some people need more time than others to prepare for a lifetime commitment. The sacraments of initiation are best celebrated with the entire faith community at the Easter Vigil. Please contact Deacon Rich at 262-331-3296.

33 Days to Morning Glory

Do you want to transform your relationship with Christ? Join us as we begin a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration. This is open to all who are interested, as well as for couples. In our 6 weekly meetings at St. Anne, (Tuesdays from 6 to about 7:30 pm, from Oct. 10 through Nov. 14) we'll share our insights within our small group and then watch a 30 minute video. The video by Fr. Michael Gaitley, brings our individual reflections and group experiences into a clear and livable focus. Each week, we'll individually read about four great Marian saints: Louis de Montfort, Maximilian Kolbe, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, and Pope John Paul II. They'll teach us how to draw closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary. The retreat culminates with our consecration to Mary through Jesus, either on Nov. 18 or 19- depending on group preference. You can register for this retreat by contacting Claudia Reuteler, creutele@yahoo.com

Acts: The Spread of the History and Kingdom

The Acts of the Apostles is a story of hope. It is the story of how Jesus' disciples, empowered by the Holy Spirit, began to bring Christ and the Good News to the ends of the earth. They taught as He did. They performed miracles as He did. And some even gave their lives for Him. Acts is the story of the Church, our Church - our story. They brought the kingdom of God to a broken world and the love of God to people's hearts. We will begin meeting at Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Parish on October 2nd at 6:30 PM and continuing for 19 sessions. For more information, contact Deacon Dan at 262-939-8798 or burmeisterd@archmil.org.

On Friday, September 1st, St. Joseph Catholic Academy opened the school year with a beautiful all school Mass concelebrated by Fr. Bill Hayward, Fr. Allen Alexander, and SJCA Chaplain, Fr. Todd Belardi. This Mass was truly distinctive because we consecrated our school to the Blessed Mother. Through consecration to Mary, the entire SJCA school community, our administration, our faculty and staff, and especially our students--from our three-year old preschoolers to our high school seniors--enhance our love for God by asking Mary to intercede on our behalf, taking our cares, concerns and prayers to her Son. SJCA students, faculty, staff and supporters will join together in this Marian Consecration, giving our selves, our efforts, our prayers and deeds to the care of our Blessed Mother. SJCA will continue to call upon Mary the Mother of Jesus as well as our patron throughout this school year. We look forward to a blessed school year.

At All Saints Catholic School learning begins in our 3 year old Saints In Training Early Learning Center. The teachers utilize the Creative Curriculum program using intentional play based centers to engage young children. The goal of our early learning center is to help children become enthusiastic learners. We believe that children learn best by doing and by exploring the world around them.

Our North and South campuses have spots available for your 3 year old to join us! Our preschool runs daily from 8:00-11:30am with additional options of half or full day care. Our extended care is available from 6am-6pm for your convenience. For more information or to schedule a tour, please contact Sue Wendorf (262)925-4024.
