THE KING SAID TO HIS SERVANTS,
“THE FEAST IS READY, BUT THOSE WHO WERE INVITED WERE NOT WORTHY TO COME.
GO, THEREFORE, INTO THE MAIN ROADS AND INVITE TO THE FEAST WHOMEVER YOU FIND.”

Come to the Feast

Why would invited guests refuse to come to a wedding? Free food and drink, music and dancing—what's not to like? By this time, Jesus knew that many of the Jewish leaders would not accept the invitation to follow him. As we know, after the Resurrection the disciples began to spread the good news not only to other Jews, but to anyone who would listen.

One reason the leaders in Israel did not accept Jesus was his association with sinners. They did not understand that God calls sinners to repent and be forgiven. Ordinary people, who knew they were sinners, were attracted by the offer of forgiveness. Many of them repented and came to be baptized. As the parable says, they filled the banquet hall.

So what about the man in the parable who came in street clothes? The wedding garment was a symbol of the baptismal gown, the sign of new life in Christ. So this man symbolizes those who "come to the feast" without repenting of their sins.

We can be like that man sometimes. We come to church, arguing with our spouse on the way. We bring our prejudices, lies, anger, and selfishness—with no intention of doing anything about them. We come with the attitude that says, "I'm here, aren't I? That should be good enough." But it's not. By dying for our sins, Jesus calls us to come back to God. So repentance is not just a change of clothing, it is a change of heart. It is our ticket to the banquet, our way of saying, "I know I don't deserve this, but thanks for letting me share the feast."

To help raise the remaining funds for our parking lot project, about $10,000, I'd like to make available to you the opportunity to buy ice cream and cheese curds from WW Homestead Dairy, which is a Weighner family business. The price you pay is the same that you would be traveling all the way to Waukon, Iowa, and walking into the store. I will cover the shipping costs. I can honestly say that you will not find better ice cream or cheese curds in the entire state of Wisconsin. I am not biased at all. After you place your order, consider adding a donation toward our parking lot fund drive. Jim Cicchini of Cicchini Construction has graciously allowed us to pay the invoice as funds become available. With your help, I'm confident that we can raise the remaining funds. There are an abundance of flavors to choose from. Again, these are the prices you would pay by traveling to Waukon, but delivered directly to you at St. Anne. Order on our website, search for 'ice cream'.

Please donate to the next St. Anne Blood Drive to be held here at St. Anne on Friday October 20th from 1-5 pm. Sign up in the Gathering Area near the clock or online at bcw.edu/stanne2017.

Faith Formation Classes are underway. Thank you for bringing your children on time and having already used the bathroom. There is so much to learn and so little time together, but we trust parents are doing their part in imparting the faith outside of this building, too. May you continue to muster the courage to say and do all that is in your heart.

"Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching..." Proverbs 1:8

Wonderful Wednesdays Play and Pray

Wonderful Wednesday is an opportunity for parents and preschoolers/infants/young-kids-not-in-school to participate in. Please enter on the west side of the building where we can buzz you in and join us in the small classroom for play time. We have toys, puppets and puzzles galore. This is a good time to build relationships with other parents of small children in a Catholic environment. We meet the second Wednesday of the month (October 11th) from 9:30 -11am. Just show up to play!

We are pleased to announce St. Anne parishioner, Suzanne Fournier, released her memoirs called, Life After Diapers. The backdrop for her book is her eight-month deployment to Iraq. Suzanne writes about moving her husband Gil to Kenosha in 2005 to be near their daughters, Michelle Metallo and Colette Shackelford, and attending Mass at St. Anne's before flying out of Mitchell Airport on her journey to the war zone of Iraq. Her book describes her journey from a stay-at-home mom of seven children to becoming a Department of Defense civilian leader and how she did it.

You can have a successful family and career. "Pray, trust in God and believe in yourself!"

Her book, is available at Amazon and Barnes & Noble. A book signing will occur after weekend masses October 28 and 29. Books will be available for purchase or bring a book you've purchased elsewhere.

Please remember to pray together for the Box of Joy recipients and the missionaries who'll deliver them! Thank you! What power there is in your generosity! Teach your children to give as Jesus gives, with self-emptying love.

October is the Month of the Rosary. At All Saints Catholic School, it has become our tradition to invite our students to pray the Rosary with their families in their homes. We do this by sending home with each student, "the Blessed Mary Rosary packets". These packets include blessed Rosaries, a prayer guide on how to pray the Rosary and a photo of the Blessed Mother. It is a beautiful opportunity for our students to encourage family prayer in their own homes. We, at All Saints Catholic School, encourage you to pray the Rosary with your family.
