Christ became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

With Friends Like These

This year, we hear the Passion from the gospel of Mark. One thing unique about this reading is the emphasis on Jesus being abandoned by his disciples. First, the leaders of the disciples, Peter, James, and John, cannot even support Jesus in his agony in the garden: They fall asleep, three times. Then there is Judas, who seeks out the chief priests to make a deal with them, Peter, who denies Jesus three times, and the disciples who flee when he is arrested. The crowds who cried, "Hosanna!" a few days before, now call for him to be crucified. Even Simon the Cyrenian had to be forced to help carry the cross. What does this tell us? With friends like these, who needs enemies? No, the point is that Jesus died specifically for these people, not because they were once friends, but because they were sinners, who needed Jesus. All but one of them ended up as saints. And the one who didn't was Judas, who gave up on Jesus, instead of coming back to him for forgiveness. When we find ourselves in sin, when we think that everything we do is wrong, or when we think we can't possibly deserve to be loved by God--that is when God can help us, if we just stop hating ourselves and start loving and trusting the Lord. It is not the time to pretend we have avoided the big sins, or to brag about some of the good we may have done. Instead of trying to convince God that we deserve his mercy, simply agree that you need his help. God loves sinners who know they need his forgiveness and don't deserve it.

But maybe you have already been forgiven and wonder what's next. Remember the ones you would not expect to support Jesus: The centurion supervising his crucifixion proclaims him Son of God. A member of the Sanhedrin gives Jesus a burial place. The women who were there to the end. These were people who did not claim to be worthy, just did what they could to show their love. Ask Jesus each morning when you wake up, "What can I do for you today?" and do what you can.

Catholic Woman's Club Project

The Catholic Woman's Club of Kenosha, has a philanthropic cause: Collecting aluminum Pop Tabs for the Ronald McDonald House in Milwaukee. The Ronald McDonald House in turn, turns the tabs into money for the House. It is a wonderful place for parents with sick children at Children's Hospital to stay.

You may drop off the tabs in plastic bags/milk jugs, to St. Anne's Office. A member of the Catholic Woman's Club will pick up the tabs, bring them to the May 6th meeting. They will then be transported to the Ronald McDonald House in Milwaukee. If you have used this facility, or know someone who has, you know it is remarkable in what they do for the parents and siblings of an ill child.

If you're too busy to pray, you're too busy. Pick a specific and regular time each day to say a prayer for your spouse such as, "Dear God, bless _____ today." It might be when you start the car, wash your hands, brush your teeth, etc. It's short, doesn't take any extra time, just extra awareness of your beloved and entrusting him or her to God's care. This works for kids too.

Are you as smart as your teen – about the internet and social networking? Sometimes it's nice to learn from our kids, but even if you don't like to mess with computers, you must learn enough about the internet to guide your children and set boundaries. Insist that your teen "befriend" you and be a silent partner.
