PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Stress in Your Marriage? – There is two weeks left to sign up for Retrouvaille in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Retrouvaille is a program for married couples who feel bored, frustrated or angry in their marriages. Some experience coldness and simply shut down. Others experience conflict and arguments in their relationship. Most don't know how to change the situation or even communicate with their spouse about it. This program has helped tens of thousands of couples experiencing marital difficulty at all levels including disillusionment and deep misery. For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend retreat in the Milwaukee area June 22 - 24, 2018, at the Redemptorist Retreat Center in Oconomowoc, please call (414) 502-7685, email: lakeshore@retrouvaille.org or visit our website at <http://www.HelpOurMarriage.com>

Two Guys and a Gospel: The Eucharist Makes Us Who We Are

“By receiving Communion, you get the strength to become the real presence of Christ for others. So that others see Christ in what we do, and what we say.” – Fr. Ricardo

“It’s that life-long journey with the Eucharist – it’s what Jesus asked us to do. There’s a lot of ways we can pray and grow close to Jesus, but He asked us to be faithful to this.” – Fr. Phillip

Two Guys and a Gospel is produced by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. This free podcast is posted every Wednesday at 10 a.m. prior to the upcoming Sunday Gospel.

What's a nightly walk have to do with your marriage vows? You vowed, "as long as we both shall live." A walk can not only keep you healthy but help you stay connected intellectually and emotionally so that thoughts of divorce do not come creeping to your door. www.susanvogt.net

"He took bread, blessed it...and gave it to them." (Mark 14:22) Hopefully your family says a blessing before meals. Good. What we eat becomes part of our body. As your family eats together this weekend be mindful that God is in each of you. Together, we are the body of Christ. we need that. www.susanvogt.net
