JOHN THE BAPTIST

Since June 24 falls on a Sunday this year, the Church has the opportunity for a more intense celebration of the birth of John the Baptist, who is often described as the last of the Old Testament prophets and the bridge between Judaism and Christianity. More commonly, John is known as the "precursor" of our Lord Jesus Christ. All the Gospels report John's basic message: Repent, the kingdom is near at hand. One greater than I is coming.

Though he was a wandering preacher who dressed in camel skins and ate grasshoppers, John's legacy is one of true royalty. His origins are similar to those foretold by God through the prophet Isaiah: "You are my servant, he said to me, Israel through whom I show my glory" (Isaiah 49:3). John's humility—"I am not he"—was surpassed only by that of his Lord Jesus, the humble servant who followed.

St. Anne's Vision, Mission and Values Statements

Dear Parishioners:

Over the past six months our Pastoral Council has been working on articulating and updating St. Anne's Vision, Mission and Values statements. The Archdiocese calls on each parish to review and update these important statements to help focus and direct efforts and ministries within a parish. It's been a prayerful and discerning process -- one that has involved much discussion and reflection.

I'd like to introduce to you to some preliminary thinking on these. In this effort, we have created: While we're very excited to share these with you, we know that these statements can only come to life if they are discussed, modeled and communicated regular. In the fall, we are planning to discuss these new statements as a parish in more depth and engage everyone on these new statements. Our hope is to continue to do the things in our parish that support our vision and mission, while also using these statements to create new opportunities for people to encounter Christ.

- A Vision Statement: Who and what we want to be
- A Mission Statement: The purpose of our being
- Values: The behaviors that will drive our mission and help to accomplish our vision

I invite you to read and study these statements. As a family, perhaps discuss these questions:

1. Is St. Anne's a haven of God's love, grace and hope for my family? How can I help make it a haven for others?
2. Do I foster a sacramental life within my own life? Within my family? Do I see out good teaching?
3. Which of these value statements do I live by? Which ones do I want to grow in? Individually and as a family?

Let me know if you have any feedback. Finally, a big thank you to our Pastoral Council for their work on this initiative. We will be welcoming in new Council members, James Chapman and Matt Berg this month. Thank you again to Tom Binder and Denise Ehr for their service. Stay tuned for more information on this in the coming months.

God's Blessings,

Fr. Bob

Our Values

Discovering Christ

- Dig for truth: I will continuously learn the faith and Church teachings.
- Know what's right: I will seek to know and live the 10 commandments.

Following Christ

- No day without prayer. I will commit to regular prayer life rooted in holy scripture.
- Live sacramentally. I will participate in the sacramental life.

Sharing Christ

- Speak up, speak out. I will bring the good news of Christ and impart his teachings to the people entrusted to me.
- Give to others. I will respond to God's call by actively participating in ministry both within the parish and wherever we encounter people in need.

St. Anne Catholic Church: A Life in Christ

Vision: To be a haven of God's love, grace and hope where all people in our region Discover Christ, Follow Christ and Share Christ.

Mission: We will foster a solid sacramental life and build a parish family where good teaching allows us to grow our community and be a place where all people can encounter Christ.

NYC Mission Trip

The NYC Mission Team is requesting the following items: 1. Thermal Socks: Men, Women and Children. (We will be sending these to our partner mission agency in NYC) 2. Lowe's Gift Cards:

We are doing a house rehab project in the Bronx and are requesting Lowe's cards to be used in NYC for supplies. (Paint, tools, etc.) Please continue to pray for our team and all those that we will be serving the week of July 7-14th.

STEUBENVILLE Mission

-The Steubenville Youth Conferences, sponsored by Partnership in Youth, has again selected Kenosha to host 1 of a series of 25 conferences across North America that help teens encounter the love of Christ every summer. Our mission is to build the Church by evangelizing, equipping, and empowering God's children to become knowledgeable, joyful disciples.

St. Anne's hosts the meals for the Leadership Training. The 25 – 30 youth will be housed at the Holiday Inn Express. Each morning, they will have breakfast, walk to St. Anne, attend Mass, begin leadership training, eat their meals, get more training, & return to the hotel around 9 pm. exhausted and inspired.

Volunteer and donation sign up for the Meals at St. Anne is located on the white board next to the script table.

Volunteers for Steubenville on the Lake at Carthage can sign up online, partnershipforyouth.org/volunteer

Christmas in July?

Vacation Bible School needs your help. Please pray and consider taking a tag off the Christmas tree on the information kiosk and returning the snack item you grocery shop for to St. Anne's kitchen before July 22. Thank you so much for providing the Tropical Treats for our Shipwrecked: Rescued by Jesus Adventure this summer.
