THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of "filler," various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

Mass Stipends

What is a Mass stipend?

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. In our parishes, anyone may request a Mass intention by calling or sending an email to the parish office. Every attempt to honor specific dates will be made. We encourage you to continue this most sacred tradition, especially remembering our faithful departed brothers and sisters.

What does it mean to “offer the Mass” for a particular intention?

It is important to remember that the primary intention of every Mass is for the redemption of all of God's people. The “intention” of the Mass listed in the bulletin is merely a way to remind family and friends that one of the intentions of the priest that is presiding will be that person or cause. It is NOT the “intention of the Mass”, nor of everyone at the Mass; it is the intention of the priest as he offers that Mass. That is why it is not announced as such. In fact, everyone is allowed and encouraged to offer their Mass they are attending for a particular person or cause; this is a way for all parishioners to more fully participate in the Mass and the sacrifice of Christ.

Are Mass intentions only for the deceased?

No. While it is customary for the intention to be on behalf of someone who is deceased, it is also proper to offer a Mass for a living person who is facing a challenge, for a wedding anniversary or other life celebration, or simply “in Thanksgiving” for some blessing received.

What is the anticipated stipend for offering for a Mass?

When a Mass intention is made, it is usually accompanied by offering a stipend. The offering of a stipend is voluntary, not required. In most dioceses in the USA, the customary stipend is $10.

Is more than one intention at any Mass allowed at Mass?

A Mass can be offered for more than one person; for example, a family may offer Mass for their deceased parents. In some dioceses, there is a policy that permits multiple intentions be allowed at two Masses every week to accommodate immediate needs and intentions for all parties agree that the intention of that Mass may be shared.

How will that work at St. Anne parish?

At St. Anne, we will follow the traditional practice of one Mass intention. As an exception, if the need arises for multiple intentions, it will be decided on a case by case basis. It should be noted that if multiple Masses are said one day, or multiple stipend ds are paid, a priest may keep only one stipend per day. (The other stipends are sent to the Diocesan Priest Retirement Fund).

Can priests other than the pastor offer the requested Mass?

If a stipend is made, the priest is obligated to make sure that a Mass is celebrated for that intention, whether he or any other priest offers the Mass. If the person requesting the Mass intention agrees, Masses can be sent to other priests. For example, chaplains at hospitals, priests in the missionary field or in specialized ministry (non-pastors) often do not receive requests and therefore are free to accept the Mass intentions and stipends for a parish. This practice allows multiple Mass request to be accommodated in a shorter period.

What is pro populo Mass?

Every pastor of a parish is also obligated to offer one Mass every weekend and every Holy Day of Obligation for his parishioners, often referred to as the “pro populo” Mass.

What if there are requests for multiple Masses for the dame person or by the same person?

To provide a more equitable opportunity for families and friends to schedule Masses for their loved ones, Mass intentions may be scheduled no more than a year advance. Only three Mass intentions for weekend or ten total Masses (including weekend Masses) may be requested within any six-month period, from the same person/family, for the same person. If there is an open and unclaimed date, other Mass intentions may be scheduled at the discretion of the Pastor.

Parish Safety Update:

Update for the Safety Ministry - For the safety and security of St. Anne's parishioners, the church doors will be locked 10 minutes after Mass begins and there will be a Safety Ministry member nearby to observe latecomers and open the doors for them as needed. The locked doors will not prevent anyone from exiting, only entering. Doors will be unlocked at the end of Mass. Safety Ministry members on duty will be wearing a yellow shirt / blouse for easy identification. If you see something unusual, please bring it to their attention or an Usher.
