Welcome to St. Anne September 9th, 2018 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 9, 2018 | TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THEN WILL THE EYES OF THE BLIND BE OPENED,

THE EARS OF THE DEAF BE CLEARED;

THEN WILL THE LAME LEAP LIKE A STAG,

THEN THE TONGUE OF THE MUTE WILL SING.

SEE BEYOND OUTWARD APPEARANCES

The phrase "Sunday best" has lost much of its meaning in our society today. Some lament the loss of people dressing up for church on Sunday; others think it's a healthy sign that we're as casual in attire gathered before the Lord as we are elsewhere. No matter which school of thought on this topic we belong to, James would probably chastise us. In either case, we are still focused on external appearance, mistaking it for some sort of favored position before God. True, James criticizes the community that favors the rich and well-dressed while ostracizing the poorly clothed, but even more he criticizes the making of distinctions, making choices based on criteria that having nothing to do with the reign of God. James might turn our attention to the reign of God described by Isaiah, in which people are healed and the earth becomes ripe to bear fruit. Jesus today is focused on this reign of God, healing a Gentile man in a region hostile to his Jewish faith, not mindful of the man's origins or clothing or status or ability to repay. Isaiah, James, and Jesus in Mark's Gospel all call us to look more deeply to find where the will of God needs to be done, and has been done, on earth as in heaven. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

RCIA/Adult Confirmation Classes

Beginning Monday, October 1st

The Catholic Church designed the RCIA process for everyone adult or child over seven years of age, who is: yearning for something more in their lives; interested in learning more about the Catholic Church; unbaptized and recognizing the need for spirituality in their lives; or baptized in the Catholic church or another Christian faith tradition but never received any formal religious training. This includes any Catholic adults who were never confirmed and would like to receive that sacrament. How long does it take? The Rite of Christian Initiation process ministers individually to those seeking membership. Some people need more time than others to prepare for a lifetime commitment. The sacraments of initiation are best celebrated with the entire faith community at the Easter vigil.

Please contact Deacon Rich at 262-331-3296.

One of the great temptations of marriage is to take each other for granted. Just as a crisis often pulls people to prayer it can also remind us how precious the presence of our spouse is. Don't wait for a crisis. Thank God today for your life partner and give a word of appreciation to your spouse. www.susanvogt.net

Rules, rules, rules. Our kids often thought they had too many rules – until they saw how chaotic and dangerous life was without them. You have safety rules I'm sure.

Do you have TV, computer, cleaning, and chore rules too. Let the kids help formulate the rules, but don't be a wimp. Your job is to be the parent. www.susanvogt.net
