THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

A Master's Degree in Theology made just for you at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology!

Cor Unum (One Heart) is a cohort model pathway designed for students who seek to evangelize and heal a fractured world, and thus put the teachings of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church into action. Each student will ask: Where is God's love most desperately needed, and how is God calling me to be an instrument of His heart and hands? Cor Unum aims to build bonds among the cohort members and with faculty that will encourage and enable them to continue to connect after graduation. About 14 dedicated students journey together through a 22-month program composed of class work, a summer immersion experience, and supervised internships, to complete a 33-credit master of arts degree.

Interested in learning more? Join us for an open house on Monday, November 19th from 5:15-7:30 pm at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology in Hales Corners. To RSVP or for more information, contact Dr. Mike Brummond, Director of the MA program at mbrummond@shsst.edu.

Those grappling with death, and those who need help embracing life

- * Whether you are a woman with problems related to pregnancy
- * Someone who's been involved in abortion
- * Someone who is disabled, sick, or dying
- * Or the family/caregiver of someone who is sick
- * If you have lost a loved one to a violent crime

Those who pledge to pray for an unborn Baby for 9 months

- * What is Spiritual Adoption? It is very simple. Participants in the Spiritual Adoption program pledge to pray for nine months for a baby in danger of abortion. While the child will remain unknown to his or her “spiritual parent”, God knows who the child is. You may select a boy or girl and name your child. Many people have found that naming their child helps to keep them focused on the reality that their prayers are helping to save a particular baby from the harm of abortion.
