THE PROMISE OF JUSTICE

We are in fairly good company when we ask God for justice. Often enough we hear and agree with the lament of the people of Israel asking God why the wicked prosper. However, when we call out for justice, we usually want someone to get his or her comeuppance. God's justice is something other than this, of course. God's justice comprises a wonderful rightness between God and humankind.

Today, Jeremiah looks ahead to a time when a just one will sprout from the shorn-off stump of Jesse of the house and family of David. Life was not fair in Jeremiah's time. Israel's kings held the promise of God's fidelity, but it was difficult to see how God's promise could be realized through them.

Nevertheless, Jeremiah lifts his voice and announces that the Promised One will come. Luke's Gospel echoes that announcement, and Paul is filled with sturdy encouragement. And so Advent begins with a promise. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

NEW YORK CITY MISSION TRIP WITNESS

“As I sit here trying to figure out a moment to reflect on, I realize I can't because there were numerous events that impacted me both emotionally and spiritually. I think out of all the mission trips I've gone on, and this one will always stick out. I was afraid in the beginning that because of the large number of people going it would be hard to forge relationships and get comfortable but we were all friends by the end of the first day mostly cause we could all bond on our exhaustion. Throughout the week I found myself getting close to every single person on the trip. There were no cliques or "groups" everyone was just there together in Christ and I now have 20 lifetime friends whom I can laugh with, cry with, and most importantly pray with. I really couldn't imagine going with anyone else. I owe it to you all for my growth in my faith and all the moments I was able to encounter Jesus.” Ireen Mbekeani

All Saints Catholic School

"No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks."
- St. Ambrose

Thankfulness is key to changing the culture. When people are thankful and they let others know, they are recognizing the work others do to serve them. As Catholics, we strive to imitate Jesus, who is the Servant and came to serve us during this time on earth. The 600+ students and staff at ASCS feel very blessed this year! We are thankful for the many volunteers that help out with their time and talents. We are also very grateful for the continued assistance of our ten supporting parishes. We continue to keep our parish families in our daily prayers. Allsaintskenosha.org (262)925-4024

St. Joseph Catholic Academy

At St. Joseph Catholic Academy, our academic outcomes are strong, but our moral formation is even stronger. Our students not only learn the Gospels, but they live them. SJCA is dedicated to building scholars, leaders and stewards who will transform the world. Please consider this sort of transformative education for your family. Studies show that students who go to Catholic School are more likely to graduate, attend college, graduate college, own a home and be more engaged in parish leadership roles. Come and see what SJCA can do for your students. To schedule a tour, please contact our admissions directors Molly Ryan and Jen Santelli at admissions@sjcawi.org or 262-654-8651, ext. 104.

THE GIFTING HANDS PRAYER WRAP MINISTRY

If you knit or crochet, the Gifted Hands Prayer Wrap ministry will be having a meeting on Dec 3, 1 PM at St Anne's. Donations of yarn are appreciated and can be put in the basket by the front entrance of the church.

Please contact the parish office if you know of someone in need of a prayer wrap.

Vision

To be a haven of God's love, grace and hope where all people in our region discover Christ, follow Christ and share Christ.

Mission

We will foster a solid sacramental life and build a parish family where good teaching allows us to grow our community and be a place where all people can encounter Christ.

Values

Values are behaviors that drive our mission and help to accomplish our vision. The following are six values intended to help guide us in our path... in a life in Christ.

*Dig for Truth
No Day Without Prayer
Speak-Up, Speak-Out*

*Know Whats Right
Live Sacramentally
Give to Others*

What does it mean to be a king, or queen, or president, or indeed anyone with power? Jesus reminds us, "My kingdom does not belong to this world." (John 18:36) Look at your spouse today and see beyond the power struggles of who is in charge or most right. Recommit to sacrificing your life for your beloved.

Remember, your children are not a reflection of you. They are souls placed on this earth by God with their own unique purpose. Our job, as parent and guide, is to help them identify this purpose.
