The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

After three days Jesus' parents found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers,
listening to them and asking them questions.

HOME IS WHERE THE FAMILY IS

The idea, dream, and reality of family is so strong and durable that we use it to describe all that is best about human gatherings. We speak of the family of nations, of our church and parish families. The greatest compliment we can pay a friend or gracious host is to say that we feel at home with them, we feel part of the family.

Families are the first crucibles in which love is tested and tempered. Jesus himself was one of three people who lived in the shadow of each other. This family, like our own, did not always “get it right,” but they always tried to. These three “amateurs” were on holiday, and one of them got lost. Two were worried sick and took great measures to find the third, a boy after all, who was seeking the meaning of his calling. He found his vocation—to do his Father’s work—but he also returned home with his parents. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today’s feast is new as feasts go, and it sets us this year in a very modern crisis. Amid conflicting schedules and commitments, a young man, testing the limits, has strayed from his parents and gone off to the big city. Mary and Joseph search frantically, only to find the child Jesus in the temple, conversing with the elders and scholars of the law, who are amazed at his wisdom.

In the time of Jesus, the temple was the religious center of Jewish ritual. Outside of Jerusalem, people gathered in the synagogues, centers of learning, for daily prayer and study. Still, everyone longed to journey to the temple to participate in the offerings, and to fulfill certain obligations of the law that could only be done there. On this feast, we catch a glimpse of the family of Jesus: parents dealing with the normal stresses of raising a child, and yet completely grounded in the ways of faith and tradition.

There has always been an appreciation in Christianity for the value of pilgrimage—the journey to holy places that is a symbol of our life’s journey to God, and a sense of connection to important events in our family history. During the Christmas season, many of us undertake pilgrimages to the family homestead for festival meals, to the parishes where we were formed in the faith, or perhaps even to a beautiful manger scene or festival of lights. There are few better days than this in our calendar for spending time with the family, especially on a short pilgrimage to a favorite place. Just make sure that no one gets left behind!—James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The locked doors will not prevent anyone from exiting; only entering. Doors will be unlocked at the end of Mass.

⇒ Mass Stipends

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. In our parishes, anyone may request a Mass intention by calling or sending an email to the parish office. Every attempt to honor specific dates will be made. We encourage you to continue this most sacred tradition, especially remembering our faithful departed brothers and sisters. The offering of a stipend is voluntary, not required. In most dioceses in the USA, the customary stipend is $10.

Though school is not in session, SJCA's dedicated teachers are busy preparing their lesson plans for SJCA's innovative J-Term. Beginning on January 7th, the SJCA middle and high school students will participate in our January term—an in-depth, experiential learning program that extends the scope of traditional education. For ten days, our students will immerse themselves in courses that are deliberately hands-on, giving them the time and freedom to explore topics outside of our normal college preparatory curriculum. Always on the cutting edge of educational best practices, SJCA's J-Term provides our students with a distinctive experience that helps reveal talents, gifts and passions. From chess club, to ACT Prep classes, to book club, to traveling to Europe or to Alabama for Space Camp, there is something for all of our students during J-Term. In addition, SJCA juniors and seniors are able to spend important time interning with various businesses and professionals throughout the community. To learn more about SJCA, visit our Open House on January 27, 2019 from 1 to 4 p.m. at both campuses or contact our Admissions Department at (262) 654-8651 ext. 104 or email admissions@sjcawi.org.

March for Life Chicago: Carmen Sosa

Dear Parishioners,

Hi my name is Carmen Sosa. I attend Horlick High school and am a member of St. Anne. Since 2014, St. Anne Youth have participated in mission trips to New York City, Chicago and Wisconsin as well as frequently helping out at local soup kitchens.

We feed the poor, the hungry and homeless. We spend time with the forgotten and we work with the Sisters of Life and the Missionaries of Charity who help women in crisis pregnancies and beyond, helping these women become loving mothers. What I learned through these experiences is that every life is sacred and has value. From conception to natural death, we must stand for life, always!

Whether it is the homeless man on the street, the aged, the disabled, the refugee or the unborn, we are all called to defend the weak and speak-out on behalf of the voiceless.

In Jeremiah, God proclaims, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you."
It's awesome to know that that before we're even born, God is making plans for our life!

The crosses that you saw outside on our lawn this past October and November remind us of the sad reality that still exists in our society.

On January 13th I ask you to join me and thousands more at March for Life Chicago 2019 as we come together to defend, protect and celebrate LIFE!

Visit saint-anne.org and register today!

God bless,
Carmen Sosa

"Rejoice in the Lord always...The Lord is near." (Philippians 4:4-5)
Sometimes pressure preparing for Christmas can blind us to what's really important. Start by remembering that Christ lives in your beloved. Pause. Take time to rejoice in each other today.

It's a new year. Give your child a chance to be a new person. Too often we type our kids. He's so lazy. She's so self-centered. If you think you know your children well, you may; but give them a chance to prove one of your negative stereotypes wrong. They might surprise you.
