GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshipping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life. —James Field, Copyright © J. Ministry Spotlight!

We are all called to serve. By serving, we carry out the command to “love God and neighbor.” During the Summer – St. Anne would like to highlight our amazing Ministries we offer at the parish.

Ministry: Deacon Ministry

Name: Deacon Rich Stanula
Family: Wife Alice of 50 years, 5 children, and 9 wonderful grandchildren.

What does your Ministry entail?

I visit people daily in nursing homes, who are homebound, hospitals, and hospice. During those visits I offer communion, pray with the person/family, and provide blessings. I offer Viaticum for those that are dying. I also bring communion to mothers on bed-rest, children with Autism, and anyone who can not make it to Mass for health reasons. My duties at Church are preaching, officiate Adoration, Benedictions Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals. I also teach RCIA, Baptism, and FOCCUS classes. I hold 6 Communion Services throughout the week at local nursing homes and rehab facilities, and at St. Anne's when Fr. Bob is not available for Mass.

What do I enjoy about this Ministry?

Being a Servant of Christ. It makes me feel good to know I am giving to the community just as Jesus asked of me. I (Melissa) wanted to share a story Deacon Rich shared to me about his ministry; it's a beautiful story of his ministry as a Servant of Christ. Over the last few weeks Deacon Rich has been visiting a woman in hospice, who has no family/friends to visit her. Every time he would visit her he pull up a chair and just spent time with her, talking and praying. The other day as Deacon Rich was visiting her, she grabbed his hand and began to cry. She told him how special he was to her, and thanked him for visiting her. She told Deacon Rich it made her feel special knowing that someone will be with her as she dies. What a beautiful testimonial of Deacon Rich and his Ministry.

How can I join this Ministry?

Please contact Deacon Rich to learn more about becoming a Deacon at 262-331-3296. Or go to the Inquiry for Discernment Program at www.archmil.org/offices/Diaconate.htm

What is something you'd like us to know about you?

I love spending time with my family and my dog Gus (who by the way is 60lbs and enjoys napping on me).

Please make sure to say Hi to Deacon Rich after Mass!

St. Anne Needs your Help!

This fall, over 300 children and youth in preschool through 11th grade will enroll in St. Anne Faith Formation classes! Please prayerfully consider whether you are called to join our team and guide our young people in knowing, loving, and serving Christ. We provide you with training, materials, and support! If you discern a call to teach a formation class, please complete the Volunteer Catechist Application which can be found under “Forms” on the Saint Anne website or contact Mary Mowry at mmowry@saint-anne.org, (262) 942 - 8300 ext. 104.

We will spend time with the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal in the Bronx, The Missionaries of Charity Soup Kitchen, two of the largest soup kitchens in the United States and a day in Harlem serving people on the street. Anyone who has attended this trip can attest to not only a greater appreciation of service but also an increase in spiritual and personal growth. There are a couple of spots that opened up. Some spots are paid for and some only require partial payment. Cost of this trip is $575. Please contact Rich Sosa at rsosa@saint-anne.org or 262-942-8300.

Message for the new school year: "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."
(Joshua 1:9) I find comfort in this Bible passage because it reminds me of the fact that our school is not a building or part of town but a group of faith-filled families, students, teachers, and staff, and together we make up All Saints Catholic School. And no matter where we go, God is with us.
