A MINDSET OF SERVICE

There's a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers. The psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God's steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke's Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha, and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others. Each of us can ask, How am I present to God and others in my life? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There's a different pace to a summer Sunday, especially on those days when we dream of air conditioning and wave any available paper to stir the air. Yet we persist in gathering, even with so many breaks from the usual routines. We distance ourselves not only from routines, but from schedules and familiar well-worn paths. These are playful days and contemplative days. We see long-lost friends and visit almost-forgotten places. We have more leisure than any people before in the history of the world, and we need it because our lives are so care-worn and tiring. More of us walk barefoot and look up at the stars or dip our toes in the lake or sea, sing around campfires, read novels on the beach, and eat comfort food with our fingers. We see how beautiful life can be, and are more aware than usual of how God is always breaking in with signs of love.

In Genesis today, Abraham and Sarah practice hospitality to their visitors, who turn out to be God dropping in. During the summer months, God practices hospitality in return, inviting us into a season of celebration. Keeping Sunday holy is a good habit to cultivate in these days when our spirits are especially receptive to God's deep desire for us to know divine love.

Christians should offer their brethren simple and unpretentious hospitality. —St. Basil

Come hear our very own Faith Formation Director and her witness to call and serve the Catholic Community.

Magnificat Kenosha/Racine chapter will be hosting guest speaker Mary Mowry at our next breakfast. For the past four years Mary has served the Catholic community in a variety of roles, primarily as a middle and high school Theology teacher and campus minister at St. Joseph Catholic Academy. Mary is a strong proponent of the youth ministry and discipleship, specializing in Theology of the Body. She is driven by a desire to help others discover their true identity in Christ. Mary finds inspiration in the words of St. Pope John Paul II, "Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure!" and strives to live a full, energetic life in pursuit of the beauty, truth, and goodness to which He calls us. Come and help us welcome Mary and witness her call to serve the Catholic Community. Ministry Spotlight!

We are all called to serve. By serving, we carry out the command to “love God and neighbor.” During the Summer – St. Anne would like to highlight our amazing Ministries we offer at the parish.

Ministry: SCRIP Ministry

Name: Raul Rodriguez

Family: Wife Maggie and daughter Claudia.

How many years have you been a parishioner at St. Anne? 13 years.

What do I enjoy about this Ministry? I truly love getting to know so many parishioners that stop by to purchase SCRIP.

What unexpected Blessing have you received from being apart of this ministry? The biggest blessing to me is how important it is to volunteer and serve others when you still have the time and health to do it.

What is one thing you wish people new about your Ministry? Our Ministry is fun and the ministers are SIMPLY GREAT!

Who can serve on your Ministry? Anyone who is over 21. Couples are welcome. And we truly need and will welcome new ministers to serve SCRIP. Please contact Ra

How has your Ministry connected you to Christ?

This Ministry has connected me to Christ by learning the importance of giving, sharing, and supporting each other anyway we can.

What is something you would like to share with the Parish about yourself? I was born and raised Puerto Rico (that explains my accent), love my Puerto Rican roots - food and music (salsa) and love golf. I could play golf eight days a week!

Please make sure to say Hi to Raul and the SCRIP Ministry crew after Mass at the SCRIP table.

Rosary Film Receives 2019 Gabriel Award

The documentary, Power in My Hands, has received a 2019 Gabriel Award on June 20, 2019 at the Catholic Media Conference in St.

Petersburg, Florida. This award honors excellence in film, broadcast and cross platform media productions. If you haven't seen the film, yet, it is an 81-minute documentary featuring 13 individuals who share their witness of the power of the rosary in their lives. Real stories of conversion, struggle, triumph, healing and more are part of this movie, along with historical references to many approved Marian apparitions. Our very own Nancy and Nick Salerno are featured in this film. In support of the Rosary Evangelization Apostolate, our own parishioner Margie Mandli was the executive producer and writer for this film and partnered with BackFlip Films (owner Ryan Freng is the son of parishioner Janet Freng) on the making of this film. To order a copy of the DVD, you may go to PowerInMyHandsTheMovie.com.
