GOD'S CALL

The person who has been "saved," who has "heard the good news of salvation," still lives in an unsaved world, a world sadly oblivious to the presence of God. Today's readings outline how the disciple is present in the world.

The outline begins with Isaiah: "Share your bread . . . shelter the oppressed . . . clothe the naked" (Isaiah 58:7). Those who hear the word of salvation are not insensitive to the urgent needs of others. Then Paul reminds his flock that he brought Christ to them not in eloquence or wisdom, but by being with them in the "weakness and fear" of their daily lives (1 Corinthians 2:3). Finally, Jesus tells his disciples to go out into the gloom and darkness of the streets of the world and let God's light shine through their good deeds.

We disciples don't save the world. To the extent, however, that we have heard the word of God and been awakened to God's presence, we may spread that word and bring that presence to others.

Relics: Reality and Legends

Please join us Tuesday, February 11 at 7 p.m. in St. Elizabeth's school in Kenosha (enter through school doors in back parking lot by Pope Saint John Paul II statue) for a free presentation on The Reality and Legends of Relics in The Catholic Faith. William will discuss Catholic relics, their appropriate use and demystify various legends and myths surrounding them.

Our presenter is Mr. William Murphy. William Murphy is a senior catechist for the Archdioceses of Chicago, with a degree in historical theology from Loyola University. He is a past president of the Religion and Ethics Institute and member of The Chicago Society of Biblical Research. For 15 years, he has also provided adult religious education for Catholic parishes in Evanston, Illinois. Our presentation is free but donations for Saint Vincent de Paul's food pantry will be accepted. Refreshments will be provided.
