GRACE GROUP

We are pleased to announce we will be studying Exodus: Called to Freedom by Ascension Press. Our leadership team prayed and discerned this study of choice, and feedback from participants continues to point to the fruitfulness of Ascension Press studies.

We will continue to offer Thursday sessions at 9:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. You are encouraged to sign up for one of these options. In addition, we are offering some accommodations in hopes of expanding our reach to more women which includes an option for connecting through Zoom.

Option I. Thursdays, 9:30 a.m. at St. Anne

(Preschool faith formation will take place between 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., so this would be a great time for preschool moms; child care will be provided for the last 30 minutes of class.)

Option II. Thursdays, 6:30 p.m. at St. Anne

Option III. Interested in small group home study? You will see options in the electronic registration form. Click on the category below and we will try to create this opportunity. Small groups are contingent on having a host to coordinate these sessions. We will provide training and resources. Please contact Margie Mandli at margie@findingyourgem.com to learn more about being a home host. Please register at <https://saint-anne.org/2020/08/21/grace-group-fall-2020/>

ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC ACADEMY

In the midst of unrest, uncertainty and many unknowns, our community has displayed remarkable fortitude and strength. SJCA is heartened by the many community members, first responders, local leaders and helpful citizens who have met adversity with compassion and love. During these unsettling times, please try to focus on the best of humanity. Find solace in the many, many kind, helpful people working for the common good, recognizing that we are all people of God. Most importantly, as a community rooted in faith, please continue to pray. Pray for our city, pray for each other, pray for peace, justice and mercy.

ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

RCIA/ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

The Catholic Church designed the RCIA process for everyone adult or child over seven years of age, who is: yearning for something more in their lives; interested in learning more about the Catholic Church; unbaptized and recognizing the need for spirituality in their lives; or baptized in the Catholic church or another Christian faith tradition but never received any formal religious training. This includes any Catholic adults who were never confirmed and would like to receive that sacrament. How long does it take? The Rite of Christian Initiation process ministers individually to those seeking membership. Some people need more time than others to prepare for a lifetime commitment. The sacraments of initiation are best celebrated with the entire faith community at the Easter vigil.

Please contact Deacon Rich at 262-331-3296.

DEVOTIONAL & PRAYER LIFE

REFLECTION FROM DEACON RICH:

THE DEVIL LOVES CONFLICTS

Yes, the devil loves conflicts. Actually, the more we will carry a grudge the happier he is. We're doing his work for him. We always have to remember that the devil is the father of lies and deception, and he's good at it. He's been at it since the time of Adam and Eve. They fell for it, and the world has fallen for it ever since. That's why God has given us Jesus as an example, plus He tells us like it really is.

In today's Gospel Jesus is traveling along with His disciples and explaining to them the importance of forgiveness. Well it gets really hard to listen to each other unless we bring Jesus into our hearts to help us from both sides. What the devil wants is for conflict to bury itself inside of relationships to fester and eventually poison the relationship. The devil even wants us to bring up old hurts, old issues, and problems that someone did to increase the hurt and the anger in the other person. Whatever (they/we) have done in the past, it is made sure that (they/we) pay, and pay, and pay.

One of the devil's biggest tricks is always to measure another person against what we feel they should do, be, or say. Yes, Satan knows all our human weaknesses. But what Jesus teaches us is to go to a person and talk to them with love and forgiveness in our hearts. Speak to that person with goodwill and with compassion.

Forgiveness is such a beautiful feeling for us to have. We must remember that the devil prefers us to feel anger, hatred, and animosity to all we may have conflict with. He can build on that from both parties. Saint Teresa of Calcutta says, "Forgive and ask to be forgiven; excuse rather than accuse." This takes love, patience, and understanding.

Most of the time what occurs with all of us is a conflict with violence of the tongue. We all seem to hurt each other the most with this. This one the devil loves the most. This conflict of the tongue has caused families to break up, people to hate others at work, neighbors to not talk to each other, and families to distance themselves from each other. Talking to each other and not to others about that person is the first step for us. Speaking with love and forgiveness of heart with gentleness can ease many conflicts. Saint Teresa of Calcutta says, "Violence of the tongue is very real, sharper than any knife, wounding and creating bitterness that only the grace of God can heal."

Well we have to keep in mind that Jesus wants us to forgive each other with a kind gentle heart. In order to live as a sign of reconciliation in the world, we must become comfortable with healthy conflict. We are human beings attempting, to the best of our ability, to be the people God has called us to be. We fail at times. But with God's love and the help of our brothers and sisters, we can forgive ourselves and each other and try again. St. Francis of Assisi says, "By the anxieties and worries of this life, Satan tries to dull man's heart and make a dwelling for himself there." Don't let him.

Blessings +
Deacon Rich

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
