KENOSHA CATHOLIC SCHOOLS ALLIANCE

In response to Archbishop Jerome Listecky's vision for increased formal collaboration among Catholic schools, we are taking exciting new steps to strengthen Catholic education in Kenosha by encouraging stronger collaboration between All Saints Catholic School and St Joseph Catholic Academy. The Kenosha Catholic Schools Alliance (KCSA), a strategic collaboration between Kenosha's archdiocesan Catholic schools, has been formed to shepherd this effort. Members of the community will be invited to serve on visioning core committees for the project.

Goals of the Kenosha Catholic Schools Alliance. This KCSA taskforce, representing Kenosha clergy, school board members, administrators, faculty, parents, parish representatives, and key Catholic community leaders, will be uncovering opportunities to further the excellence of a city-wide Catholic school network in Kenosha.

Independence of our Kenosha Catholic Schools. All Saints Catholic School and St Joseph Catholic Academy each remain separate schools within the new Kenosha Catholic Schools Alliance. KCSA simply seeks to formalize the cooperation the two schools have always informally maintained and provides new opportunities to build on the schools' Catholic mission and to better serve the Catholic community in Kenosha.

If you have questions or would like to participate in this project, please send an email to kenoshacatholicsschoolsalliance@gmail.com.

RCIA/ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

The Catholic Church designed the RCIA process for everyone adult or child over seven years of age, who is: yearning for something more in their lives; interested in learning more about the Catholic Church; unbaptized and recognizing the need for spirituality in their lives; or baptized in the Catholic church or another Christian faith tradition but never received any formal religious training. This includes any Catholic adults who were never confirmed and would like to receive that sacrament. How long does it take? The Rite of Christian Initiation process ministers individually to those seeking membership. Some people need more time than others to prepare for a lifetime commitment. The sacraments of initiation are best celebrated with the entire faith community at the Easter vigil.

Please contact Deacon Rich at 262-331-3296.

ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC ACADEMY

An SJCA education is an investment in your child's future and often requires careful financial planning and sacrifice. ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

We are currently in our 10th year at All Saints Catholic School providing Catholic education to 400+ children in grades K4-8th grade and 3 year old preschool. Our theme this year is, appropriately, "Moving Forward in Faith". All Saints Catholic School serves families from all 10 parishes in Kenosha and we hope you will continue to support ASCS and our mission.

More than ever, the availability and viability of Catholic education for the youth in our community is of utmost importance. As we kick off our Annual Fund Campaign later this month, we hope you will continue to support All Saints Catholic School and in doing so, promote Catholic education in Kenosha. Your generosity ensures that current and future students will be Moving Forward in Faith for generations to come!

DEVOTIONAL & PRAYER LIFE

REFLECTION FROM DEACON RICH:

WELL DONE, MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT

How are we doing? What do you think? Is Jesus satisfied with us? When our end approaches will we hear Jesus say, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." I suppose we all pray and are hoping so. But just to pray and hope it will happen is just not enough. Jesus wants to see us in action.

In the first reading we get a real good example of a woman who has loving hands. It tells of all that she does for others. How do we work with our hands to serve others? How do we help those people that we know, and even more so those who we don't know? By doing so the reading says there will be a reward for us.

The second reading is saying our end comes to us like a thief in the night. We will never know when the Lord will come. We can't fall asleep, but we must stay awake and not be taken by surprise when the day of the Lord comes. St. Paul writes to the Thessalonians, "You are children of the light." So let's think about this for a minute and ask ourselves how do we strive to be a light in places or times of darkness in our lives?

In our world today it is obvious that we have been given much and we really can see very easily those who have little. Now I'm not talking about money and prestige. I'm talking about God's gifts to us and what are God's expectations of us in our lives. You see Jesus came into this world to teach God's people and to prepare them to carry on His work in this world. In other words we then are responsible for proclaiming the Gospel, teaching others how to live as God's people, help the poor, reaching out to others as our brothers and sisters, the homeless, the sick, and the lonely. Helping at St. Anne's ministries, there are so many to choose from.

Now where do we start? First of all the ones we need to learn from are the servants in the Gospel who doubled what they had been given. The servant who buried his talent was the wrong one to follow. He pretends to be on good terms with his owner but does not do his duty. He's kind of like the person today who believes that the life of faith has nothing to do with anyone else but only with God. Faith is private. But is it? Faith is to be lived and seen. We start with going to confession, or reconciliation. We get our hearts and souls into the proper disposition with God. Once we have freed ourselves of our sin, of all our guilt, we can then have a more loving open mind to start to do all the above mentioned. Yes, confession is the key to start it. It's where we meet Jesus in the confessional and all is forgiven. We now can pursue everything so much easier with joy and contentment.

Faith is life, which is expressed in love. Being afraid is equivalent to having no faith. And so now to keep our faith strong, daily prayer from our heart is important, because we have now cleansed it with confession. We pray the rosary daily and do an examination of our conscience every evening. All of this brings about a true joy in our lives. We have then prepared ourselves for whenever the time may come. Padre Pio says, "Joy, with peace, is the sister of charity. Serve the Lord with laughter." Then when we do face the Lord we may hope to hear Him say, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." Wouldn't that be great?

Blessings +
Deacon Rich

MEMORY VERSES

FIRST READING:

Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates. (Prv 31:30-31)

PSALM:

Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Ps 128)

SECOND READING:

For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober. (1 Thes 5:5-6)

GOSPEL:

"His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'" (Mt 25:21)

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
